

FANS FULL OF EXCITEMENT

Race for Pennant Grows in Interest as the Days Pass By.

IMPOSSIBLE TO PICK WINNERS AS YET

Any One of Four Teams in the League in Position to Bear Away the Coveted Trophy.

Such an intensely interesting race for a pennant was never enacted as that now in progress in our Western League.

The Omaha put a kink in the unparalleled run of luck that has been meted out to them for the last three weeks by winning a game from Des Moines Friday afternoon.

Denver patriotism alone warrants the assumption that the present post-poners have the pennant at their mercy and there is no foundation in fact for such a conclusion.

Only two games are scheduled to be played on the home grounds this week, the completion of the series with Pueblo.

The news of Manager McKibben's suspension of Davis, the capable first baseman of the Missourians, because of an infidelity in Thursday's game with Pueblo, to which the Saints' defeat was attributed, will be received with disappointment by the many fans who admire the genial good nature and original coaching of the first baseman.

Since the Colts have been returned to the club being disorganized and torn asunder by reason of internal difficulties was unfounded. They have simply been against an overgrown bunch of hard luck.

The Western league has by no means a corner on exciting pennant races. The American league race has developed into one almost as interesting and there is a

Says Dr. Bennett, Will Be Taken From Patients His Electric Belt Will Not Cure—It Does Not Burn and Hilar and Appeals to Your Better Judgment—The Doctor Cautions You About Imitations.

Strength is a natural consideration—weakness unnatural. Every physician who is not an old fogy knows that the only natural strengthener for weak men and women, it is Nature's remedy for all the ills of the flesh and I have demonstrated the fact on many occasions.

Manager Bill Rourke lied himself east the first of the week in search of players and the results of his efforts are now beginning to show up.

Denver's shut-out by Sioux City Thursday has rankled in the breast of Manager Tebeau. His ire has broken out like a small-pox infection, asserting itself in the discharge of Kanne, the Denver pitcher who assisted in the umpiring, and in the suspension of Al Mauck, one of the best umpires the league has had.

GOLFERS DISCUSS TOURNEY

Enthusiasm of the Players Wrought Up to Highest Pitch During the Past Week.

The golf enthusiasts of the city have devoted themselves during the week to the discussion of the first inter-club tourney, scheduled for yesterday afternoon at the Country club links between five players from that organization and five from the Kountze Place club.

Probably the strongest player on the Country club side is W. J. Foye, who is one of the most conscientious players in the organization. Foye is an almost daily on the links and has even been accused of appearing twice or three times to test his form in the course of the twenty-four hours.

recently issued under the auspices of Charles R. Fox, there are many passages of sage advice and wise counsel, together with a mass of statistics of interest to those who love the sport.

There are a thousand and one patents and inventions, but they are, as a rule, of little value. A few of the newer types have merit to show up.

WHIST PLAY RESULTS IN TIE

Local Devotees of the Game Offers Some Observations on "Conventional" Play.

Five tables were filled on Wednesday evening at the rooms of the Omaha Whist club. Reed and Rinehart tied with McNeill and Crummett for high place in North and South, each scoring 237, with a plus of 8.

OMAHA BANKING ON M'ELROY

Local Athletes Expect to See Him Break His Own Record at Lake Geneva.

The hopes of the Young Men's Christian association athletes have centered during the week upon the showing which it was hoped W. E. McElroy would make Saturday at the National association games at Lake Geneva.

Local players are getting ready to participate actively in the contest at Lincoln the middle of August and promise to bring home a few of the laurels snatched from their brows on the Fourth of July by the Lincoln men, who captured everything in sight at the Ames avenue grounds.

AMONG ROOKS AND PAWNS

Hammond Chooses What the Books Call a Losing Defense in a Match with Rasmussen.

The score given below is from the fourth game completed in the final of the Nebraska chess association. A Rasmussen, South Omaha player, and H. B. Hammond, Wynora, black, in harmony with his idea that "book" openings have little merit, and that it is impossible to demonstrate that certain opening moves are good and others weak, Mr. Hammond deliberately chose what the "books" say is a losing defense.

The following lively consultation game, in which the American champion, Pillsbury, and Fazy, a Frenchman, were defeated by Brody and Rosen in consultation, was contested immediately after the close of the masters' tournament.
